Dear WAG Members,

WAG Officer Elections

Thank you to everyone who participated in the September General Meeting. At the start of that meeting, we needed to have 87 members in attendance to have a quorum to be able to vote. After multiple checks of the count of members in attendance the proposed changes to the by-laws was able to be voted upon.

Thanks also go out to everyone who volunteered for the open positions. Your current board members greatly appreciate your doing this. We were worried about what would happen if there were not officers for 2016. You came through and we have a slate of members for the following positions:

President:	Joyce Norfolk
VP Programs:	Karen Tobiassen
VP Marketing:	Michael S. White
VP Shows:	Faye Hayes
Treasurer:	Jo Anne Hoehne
Secretary:	Jeff Eastman
Art Market Chair:	Phyllis Howard
Speakers/Program Chair:	Janice Hartwell
Member Chair:	Pam Pontious
Publicity Chair:	Bonnie Tyler
Show Chair:	Jennifer Korn-Leech
Venues Chair:	Linda Calkins
Historian:	Helen Harris
Properties:	Jacob Slagle
St. Joe's:	Barbara Schickler
Scholarships	Heidi Wood
Trustee:	Pat Fisher

Crested Crane 11x14 Color Pencil on Vellum by Phyllis Howard

Our other two Trustee positions do not need voting on this year as they are in the midst of their multi-year terms.

Since the last meeting, our membership has risen to 138 members. As a result, we will need a minimum of 90 members to vote for our officer elections for 2016. Given the traditionally low attendance of the November General Meeting and the proximity of the Thanksgiving holiday, we are making a slight modification to this year's elections.

Make your vote count

An online form has been created to allow you to place your vote. You can place your vote online now and the polling will end on the 24th of November. You can place your vote at:

<http://whatcomartguild.org/election.aspx>

You can still come to the November General Meeting to place your vote if you would rather not vote online.

Thank you everyone!

Michael. WAG President

Curious About COLORED PENCIL

A

Colored Pencil (CP) is not a popular choice for most artists; the most common complaint being that it takes too long.

E

On the plus side, the benefits of working with CP is that it's less costly, very portable, and blends well with other mediums. And what better tool to use to nurture a child's art interests than a pencil.

C

Wax-based materials such as crayons and pencil crayons have appealed to artists for centuries due to their resistance to decay, the vividness and brilliance of their colors, and their unique rendering qualities. However, it wasn't until 1908 that the first artist-quality colored pencils were produced. The medium has been slow to catch on, but the establishment of the Colored Pencil Society of America (CPSA) IN 1990 GREATLY PROMOTED IT'S RECOGNITION IN THE PROFESSIONAL artist arena.

L

The CPSA hosts three Internationally recognized shows; the CPSA INTERNATIONAL which requires entries to be 100% CP, EXPLORE THIS which permits CP with mixed media, and ARTSPECTATIONS which is an on line show.

E

TEST: Can you correctly identify the medium used for each of the five paintings to the left? Your choices are PASTEL, OIL, ACRYLIC, CP, and WATERCOLOR. Think you have it figured out? Submit your answer at the next WAG meeting.

THIS IS THE FIRST IN A SERIES OF ARTICLES ABOUT CPS. NEXT MONTH'S NEWSLETTER WILL FEATURE AN ARTICLE EXPLAINING THE MANY TYPES OF CPS AND THEIR USE.

The Girls Night Out was great fun last month. Several men joined in painting the community painting as well as the ladies and the whole idea was a hit. This month has been busy with holiday planning, getting advertising taken care of and general 'housekeeping'. Things are just humming along. We're asking our artists to have their space decked out with Christmas decorations by Thanksgiving so we will be ready for the November 27th and 28th Holiday Art Walk. It's going to be a busy season.

Meet an Art Market artist - Sheryl Attolini

For the past few months I have had the joy of writing about one of the artists in the Whatcom Art Market. One theme has always been present — the artist's enjoyment at being a part of the Market. This theme is shared by not only the artists I have interviewed but also those who were not able to give an interview when asked.

The crabby lady is no exception — indeed, Sheryl Attolini said in her recent email to me "I enjoy being at the art market." Sheryl is one of the originals at the Market, starting at its beginning on the basis of JoAnne Wyatt's invitation — "she made it sound so good." Sheryl took a couple of months off along the way and then, returned to stay with us even today.

Membership in WAG is required for WAM participation. Sheryl's memory seems to telescope her WAG membership into her WAM participation; or, was it her WAM participation telescoped into her WAG membership? Her participation has been almost six years. (By the way, for those of you who have yet to hear, Whatcom Art Market celebrated its fifth anniversary this past March.)

From her ART Market experience of being with other artists, enjoying the camaraderie within a community of friends, learning about different media and styles, and seeing each one's passion, Sheryl encourages Art Market participation. It provides an opportunity to meet other artists, meet customers, show one's work, bounce ideas off other artists, grow one's art and see growth among the other artists.

INTIMATE IMPRESSIONISM

FROM THE NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART

OCT 1 2015 – JAN 10 2016

SEATTLE ART MUSEUM

MADAME MONET AND HER SON, 1874, AUGUSTE RENOIR.

The Seattle Art Museum is proud to present Intimate Impressionism from the National Gallery of Art (in Washington, DC). The collection is comprised of extraordinary paintings, considered to be the jewels of one of the finest collections of French Impressionism in the world.

This exhibition features 68 intimately scaled paintings by Impressionist and Post-Impressionist masters, including Edouard Manet, Auguste Renoir, Claude Monet, Eugène Boudin, Paul Cézanne, Edgar Degas, Camille Pissarro, Pierre Bonnard, Edouard Vuillard, Paul Gauguin, and Vincent van Gogh, among others. These works, which are prominently presented in the East Building of the National Gallery, have long been treasured by the museum's visitors and prized by art historians.
