April General Meeting

Members enjoyed a very interesting meeting as Skip Patten, worker of wood, brought several hand tools and explained how he uses them to create a range of items from small sculptures, hand carved masks, and machine turned wood from a lathe. He captivated his audience. Thank you Skip.

Many members brought entries for the Art Challenge and the Artist of the Month. There was an amazing amount of talent and enthusiasm shown throughout the evening!

Thao Le was the winner of the Dakota Arts $10 Gift Certificate at our April General Meeting. Congratulations Thao!

The Purpose of the Art Guild

- to encourage and promote the visual arts within Whatcom County
- to welcome and encourage all artists - beginning to professional
- to provide an environment in which artists can meet and exchange ideas and information
- to organize exhibits in which members may display and sell artworks
- to establish ties within the county and promote the visual arts
- to support lifelong art education
- to promote member artists and the Whatcom Art Guild

May General Meeting May 9 at 7:00 pm at the Bellingham Public Library

New WAG member Diana Guza-Wells and her husband Todd Carter will give a 30 minute presentation on art, painting and travel In New Zealand. Todd was born and raised in New Zealand, and they have just returned from a two month trip to the North Island where they visited some of their favorite places and Diana was able to do some acrylic painting. The vibrant New Zealand light as well as the spectacular scenery is conducive to colorful landscape painting. Diana will discuss its affect on New Zealand art and her own painting. Todd will show slides of some of their favorite New Zealand haunts including the seacoast town of Napier set in Hawkes Bay wine country. Napier is known for its art deco architectural style resulting from a rebuilding of the town due to an earthquake in 1931. Diana and Todd will be leading a small personalized tour of the North Island in January 2018. Painters and art lovers are welcome!

We hope to see you there!

WAG Jury Results

The WAG Jury for the Jansen Exhibition met last Tuesday, April 25th below are the results:

There were a total of 95 pieces of art submitted for consideration. Great job WAG Members.

Of the 95 entries there were 81 wall art and 14 - 2D/3D. There was a good representation of 8 different mediums, and variety galore in the 2D/3D entries.

I'm pleased to announce that only 8 entries were not forwarded to the Jansen, and the majority of those 8 entries did not meet the theme of "Books, Games, and Puzzles", or they were not square.

A BIG Thank You to all of those who participated in this year's exhibit. You did the WAG PROUD.

Each month Guild members have a chance to enter their artwork in a mini competition at the General Meeting. Members vote to determine the top four pieces. Winners are designated Artists of the Month and their artwork is featured here and on the WAG website: www.whatcomartguild.org/artistsOfTheMonth.html, and are exhibited at participating venues in the community.

Guild members may enter one piece. If it is a painting, it must be framed in a professional manner and ready to hang with a wire hanger (no sawtooth hangers). Photos will be taken at the meeting for the website and newsletter or you may provide your own digital image.

Whatcom Art Market

May is the month to find something special for Mom (Mothers' Day is May 14!) and think ahead to summer. At Whatcom Art Market, our artists have unique gift ideas and cards to delight her, all lovingly and locally created.

We have five new artists who have joined us, and as usual, all our Art Market members are constantly adding new creations for you to enjoy. Our featured artists this month bring you handcrafted soaps and lotions, gorgeous photography, dramatic etched metal work, colorful textiles and beautifully handcrafted woodwork. Come in and visit with them, see what they have to offer and hear about their art.

May 3-7 – Penny Welch offers a sweet-smelling variety of soaps and lotions, along with unique, handcrafted greeting cards. Penny will be on site, demonstrating and talking about her creations, Sat. May 6, 1-3pm and Sun. May 7, 2-3pm.

May 10-14 – James Weaver. James travels far and wide to bring wonderful photographic scenes, from landscapes to floral closeups to curious cats. Come meet and greet with him Fri. May 12, 11-2 and Sat. May 13, 11-2.

May 17-21 – Graham Schodda. Recently joining the Art Market, Graham creates dramatic etched metal work. Come meet him and learn more about his art Sat. May 20, 5-6pm.

May 24-28 - Karen Tobiassen. Karen is a long—time member of the Art Guild and the Art Market. Her work is in textiles, and includes really fun, unique luggage tags and a variety of other creative household items. She will be demonstrating her handquilting process Sat. May 27, 11-2.

May 31-June 4 – Lyle Harris. Lyle will do a demo of his work on June 3.

Summer is on its way – come see what our artists have created for your enjoyment.

Thanks to everyone who participated with the art sale in Skagit County....including pricing, donations, purchases, set-up, take-down, and relaying our news. And also for your good wishes!

We earned $850 for Meals on Wheels at the Mt Vernon Senior Center! Krystl Torset, who is in charge of the Mt Vernon Sr Center, was a big help! She loaned a special room to stock our supplies, and then opened the "ball" room for the day of the sale. Even though we made a hefty sum, we had a lot of donations left after the Sale and those supplies will help the alternative high school here in Mt Vernon.

We had a winner for the Plein Air Kit raffle! One of Michele Cooper's students was the lucky gal. Congrats to Mary Whitlock!

Guess The Medium

Can you guess what was used in the making of the flower above? ↑

The first WAG member to call (360) 389-7964, or email Joyce Norfolk at studiogals@aol.com with the correct answer to either (or both) pieces will win a nice prize to be awarded at the May General Meeting.

LAST MONTH'S WINNER was June Keifer. She guessed the correct answer to "Who The Famous Person" was that painted the portrait (right). June won a year's subscription to Artist's Magazine.

The correct answer was Actress Kim Novak. Visit her website a www.kimnovakartist.com To see more of her art.
