Whatcom Art Guild GENERAL MEETING 2017 SCHEDULE

October 10

November 14

No Meeting in December

January 9

February 13

March 13

General Meetings are held on the 2nd Tuesday of every month at 7:00 pm at the Bellingham Public Library, downtown branch.

Next Board Meeting
Tuesday,
October 26, 2017
at 7 pm at the
Whatcom Art Market
in Fairhaven.

The WAG membership was treated to a wonderful “hands on” demonstration at the September general meeting. John SeEVERS brought materials like: gems, shells, pods and rocks. He showed the group how to trim, clean and dye pine needles before weaving them into his artful basket creations. The group was able to learn about the amazing processes John has developed as he passed around the materials and treated the audience with humorous explanations of his artistic journey. Thank you John.

September Artists of the Month

1st Place

"Windswept Strength"
by Jackson Faulkner

Each month, Guild members have a chance to enter one piece of their artwork in a mini competition at each general meeting. Members vote to determine the top four pieces. Winners are designated Artists of the Month and their artwork is featured here and is exhibited at participating venues in the community.

Guild members may enter only one piece and must be present at the general meeting. If it is a painting, it must be framed in a professional manner and ready to hang with a wire hanger (no sawtooth hangers). Photos will be taken at the meeting for the website and newsletter or you may provide your own digital image.

2nd Place

"Storm Chaser" by Julie Mortimer

3rd Place

"Vernazza Harbor" by Laurel Piper

Karen McKormick was the winner of the Dakota Arts $10 Gift Certificate at our September General Meeting. Congratulations Karen!

4th Place

"The Legend of Sleepy Hollow"
by Pauline Pettersen

Library Corner

Look for this new addition to the dvd library if you are interested in acrylics.

"Paint Acrylic Landscapes, Understanding Sun And Shadow" by Mark Mehaffey.

In this dvd you will learn:

- tips and techniques for painting colorful and interesting light and shadows
- how to paint a dramatic landscape in acrylic
- how to mix acrylic paint colors that create strong contrasts

Whatcom Art Market

October – cooler weather and thoughts of snuggling down at home. Our local artists bring you many wonderful pieces to decorate yourself, your home or as gifts for friends and family. Come see demonstrations by our weekly featured artists, and enjoy the company of many of our members at Fairhaven's Fourth Friday

Art Walk on October 27. October is our month for featuring our fiber artists with their unique selections of handwoven, knitted and stitched personal and home fashions.

Our featured artists -

Wed. 10/4-Sun. 10/8: Barb Atkins, knitting and needle felting. Come see how Barb designs, creates and constructs her unique felted animals and beautiful hats and scarves. She will be demonstrating at the Art Market Sat. October 7, 11-2pm.

Wed. 10/11-Sun. 10/15: Janice Hartwell, sewing, quilling (not quilting!) and felting. Janice constantly searches for new ways to create unusual and unique pieces from fabric and paper. Come see her Babushka dolls, quilled jewelry, felted wall hangings, and woven fabric baskets. She will be demonstrating Sat. October 14, 11-2pm.

Karen Angell

Wed. 10/18-Sun. 10/22: Karen Angell, supreme sewing artist. Karen designs and creates beautiful fabric pieces, from wall hangings to children's wear. Color and embroidery make her works outstanding individual pieces. She will be at the Art Market to talk about her art Sat. October 21, 11-2pm.

Wed. 10/25-Sun. 10/29: Pat Fisher, Handweaver and knitter. As Huckleberry Threads, Pat has been designing and creating personal and home fashions from beautiful yarns for many years. Pat is our featured artist at the October Fairhaven Art Walk. Come see her in action and talk about yarn art at the Art Walk (Oct. 27, 5-8pm) and on Sat. and Sun. Oct. 28/29, 11-2pm.

Come see us, bring your friends and family and share the best display of art in Whatcom County!

Fairhaven Fourth Friday Art Walk 2017

2017 dates: October 27 & November 24

Celebrate the creative spirit of Fairhaven every fourth Friday of each month (except December). Merchants throughout Fairhaven village open their doors to share the artwork of emerging and established artists.

Meet the artists, see demonstrations, partake in refreshments and enjoy entertainment. Each month will feature new and exciting artists.

Monthly guides and maps can be picked up at participating venues.

More Whatcom Art Market

Kay Dee Powell gave a very interesting "silk painting" demo at the Art Market when she was a featured artist there last month. The process is fascinating and Kay Dee makes it especially fun & interesting.

"Into the Arts" Interviews with WAM Artists

Jeannie Gilbert, a webcast radio reporter for the program "Into the Arts", interviewed Phyllis Howard, Elvy Schmoker and Peggy Alexander in regard to the Whatcom Art Market. The interview will be aired one week before the next scheduled "Fourth Friday Art Walk" in Fairhaven in October.

Discussed in the interview was the history, mission, and future of WAM.

Jeannie will be at the WAM "All Hands Meeting" to discuss her webcast future interviews with individual artists in the market. This is a great opportunity for all of our artists.

Whatcom Art Guild is in Jeopardy

As a non-profit organization, it is mandated that we must have a full and functioning board. Our elections will be held at the November meeting. As yet, no one of the 142 members has volunteered for the major positions on the board.

Simply put, beginning in 2018 without a full board Whatcom Art Guild may no longer exist. That means that opportunities for members will no longer exist, member's artwork will no longer be displayed in venues around city and county, the public support that we provide like ART SCHOLARSHIPS and supplies for children at St. Joseph Hospital will be gone.

Whatcom Art Guild has provided a place for artists of all mediums for over fifty years. We have given the community the opportunity to appreciate and afford great art. We must not allow this organization to simply go away.

The Board encourages ALL members to come to the October 10th general meeting to volunteer themselves or nominate someone. We are in need of a president, vice president, secretary and committee chair positions. Those of us who have served in these positions can tell you without a doubt it will be well worth your time and energy. The Fate of the Whatcom Art Guild is in all of our hands!

"This treasurer's report is as of August 31st . . . more detailed information is available — just ask."

Whatcom Art Guild

Treasurer's Report

General Meeting

9/12/2017

Beginning Balance on 7/31/2017

$4,952 (all figures rounded to next higher dollar)

Income during August

$1,060 (New Memberships, Venue sales, Birch Bay show participant deposits, Donation Jar for St. Joe's Kids.)

Expenses in August included

$975 (Bookkeeper, Birch Bay show deposit, Make Shift Project, Meeting room)

Ending Balance on 8/31/2017

$5,076

Whatcom Art Market

WAM's money flow is significantly complex that to give figures like I just gave for WAG's primary account would require more space than we have available.

WAM has an interest-bearing, restricted savings account consisting of the security deposits each artist deposited upon signing the contract to be in the Market. At the end of August it had $2,572.

"Donation Jar" for St Joe's kids

Begun to replace the donation jar we used to have at our shows.

June general meeting raised	$ 75.00
July	107.75	$182.75
August	28.30	211.05
